DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1. In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted. The following distinct inventions are claimed:

group A, claims 1-8, drawn to an apparatus for notifying users that they are moving out of coverage area;

group B, claims 9-12, drawn to a system comprising a central unit for informing users that they are moving out of coverage area;

group C, claims 13-15, drawn to a method for notifying users that they are moving out of coverage area; and group D, claims 16-20, drawn to a device for wirelessly transmitting patient information to a central monitoring station;

The inventions listed as Groups A, B, C, and D do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

There is no "special technical feature" tying the four inventions together. Group A claims an apparatus for notifying users that they are moving out of coverage area, group B claims a system comprising a central unit for informing users that they are moving out of coverage area, group C claims a method for notifying users that they are moving out of coverage area, group D claims a device for wirelessly transmitting patient information to a central monitoring station. The technical feature common among all the groups is an alarm or notification that the user has moved out of coverage area however lack of unity between the four groups is evident in view of Reed et al. (US Patent Publication No. 2003/0114736 A1, hereinafter Reed). Reed disclose an apparatus and method for transmitting an indication that the user is moving out of coverage area (see ¶ 16-20; ¶ 35-36 and ¶ 84-87).

A telephone call was made to Douglas McKnight on April 20, 2009 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.
